Contents
The modul discusses in two terms two different epochs and/or different schools of China's premodern or modern intellectual history. Students learn about intellectual positions, arguments, terminology and reference systems of the respective schools of thought and epochs based on original texts in translation. An introduction into exemplary fields of Chinese intellectual history is provided. As terminology is also dealt with in Chinese language, basic knowledge of Chinese is highly recommended.
Intended learning outcomes
Students are able to substantially differentiate positions, arguments and terminology of the presented schools of thought and epochs and indipendently contextualize intellectual arguments. They are prepared to indipendently and critically access further epochs and schools of thought.
