Contents
The focus is on oral communication and the teaching of everyday language. A special focus is placed on language situations that are of particular relevance at the beginning of the compulsory semester abroad in Beijing. Passive and active language skills are practised on the basis of the modules SB1-3 in a situation-specific manner. The first part of the module is held in a two-week crash course before the start of the regular lecture period of the winter semester. In the accreditation procedure, a summer language course in the PRC organised and supervised by Würzburg and the ECLC office at PKU can be recognised instead of the crash course in Würzburg. The second part of the module is a semester course.
Intended learning outcomes
Students acquire speaking skills suitable for everyday use. The focus is on oral communication. Students are able to understand and respond appropriately to everyday situations within the framework of their vocabulary and the language structures practised in the textbooks.
