Contents
Based directly on the students' level of knowledge, selected practical life and professional topics (education, culture, medicine, administration, advertising, Beijing) are developed, and the oral skills are intensified and broadened. In addition, oral presentations in Chinese are practised and presented. The ability to independently differentiate active and passive vocabulary is practised.
Intended learning outcomes
Students are able to coherently and appropriately present topic-specific facts in presentations of approximately 15 minutes. They are able to differentiate between active and passive vocabulary that has to be learned independently. The active vocabulary reaches 1500-2000 characters.
