Contents

Academic concepts of culture, interculturality and transculturality, conditions, possibilities and limits of an academically based understanding of the music of foreign cultures; international manifestations, conditions of origin and modes of reception of popular music in the 20th and 21st centuries, popular music in the global media context.

Intended learning outcomes

Students have knowledge of academic concepts of culture, interculturality and transculturality. They are familiar with the conditions, possibilities and limits of an academically founded understanding of the music of foreign cultures and are able to critically apply the acquired knowledge to questions of music education. The students have knowledge of popular music in the 20th and 21st century, in particular of its international forms, conditions of origin and ways of reception. They can locate popular music in the global media context and in the accompanying discourses.
