Contents
In this module, the basics for correct and independent work on questions and objects of music research are studied. Basic specialist techniques are taught and practised in the two courses, which are coordinated in term of content, especially research (databases, bibliographies, subject-specific source types), bibliography (primary and secondary sources) and citation. The understanding of contents, structures and meaning of academic texts is developed, tested and reflected upon. The written and oral presentation of academic results is examined theoretically and practised.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has knowledge of the subject-specific research tools, methods and the academic formal requirements as the basis of correct academic work. The student is able to classify, understand and reflect upon academic texts and to reproduce their essential contents. According to the rules of good scientific practice, the student is able to present academic findings in a structured manner and appropriately to the content requirements, both orally and in writing.
