Contents
In this module, the sources, musical testimonies and cultural-historical conditions of European music history since the early modern period (around 1420) and their music-historiographical interpretation are studied. The focus is on persons, phenomena and processes of music history. Using significant examples, specific methods of the Humanities (such as philological, descriptive, comparative and analytical working methods) and of speaking about music (such as technical terminology and use of metaphor) are taught, reflected and practised.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has a sound knowledge of European music history of the early modern period, its sources and its phenomena. He/she is able to classify this in a reflected manner into historical contexts. On this basis, he/she is able to present and interpret music-historical phenomena independently, sophisticatedly and method-consciously.
