Contents
In this module the historicity of knowledge is studied. Any knowledge and recognition is historically conditioned. The concepts of music historiography are subject to perspectives that are changing and contingent. The student reflects the historical condition of knowledge and his/her own academic approach by means of significant examples and against the respective intellectual-historical background.
Intended learning outcomes
The student is familiar with the historical conditionality of the academic approach to music, its history and its sources. He/she is able to recognise the contingency of his/her own position, to reflect and to present it methodically.
