Contents
In this module, questions about the forms of appearance, the context of performance or use as well as the history of orally transmitted music are studied. By means of exemplary studies of unwritten and semi-written music cultures of the past or present, contexts and mechanisms of oral production, reproduction and reception of music as well as consequences for its *artful construction of a composition will be explored using appropriate empirical, descriptive and analytical methods. Furthermore, the interaction of different storage media such as writing, images, memory or sound carriers is the subject of reflection.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has well-founded exemplary knowledge of the diverse manifestations and cultural contexts of orally transmitted music. He/she is familiar with the specifics of scriptless cultures and is able to critically question traditional script-related musicological concepts in this context.
