Contents
In this module, the similarities of and differences between musical cultures in the past and present are studied. The conditions of mutual understanding between the bearers of mutually foreign musical cultures are examined. By means of exemplary topics from European and non-European music as well as the respective music thinking, the problems, goals and limits of an academic founded understanding of music and the music thinking of foreign cultures are reflected. In the process, students will become acquainted with concepts of culture, interculturality and transculturality and apply them to musicological questions.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has knowledge of academic concepts of culture, interculturality and transculturality. He/she is familiar with the conditions, possibilities and limits of an academically sound understanding of the music of foreign cultures. The student is able to critically apply the acquired knowledge to issues of Musicology.
