Contents
In this module, the media and, if applicable, the inter- or transmedial composition of music are studied by using examples or on the basis of media theories - synchronous, diachronic or media archaeological. Preferably this is a media aesthetic reflection. Furthermore, basic communication systems or (from a sociological perspective) communication patterns can be covered.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has basic knowledge of the medial constitution of music in an exemplary subject area. He/she is able to discuss media theoretical methods or individual strategies in terms of their goals and argumentation and to apply them to examples.
