Contents
In this module the relationship between music and society is studied from a systematic and historical point of view. Music is regarded as a social phenomenon and analysed in different musical cultures and historical contexts with its specific musical functions and institutions. In addition to general techniques of sociological structural analysis, specific techniques of empirical research will be learnt.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has the ability to independently recognise music sociological phenomena, to classify them theoretically and to formulate corresponding hypotheses. He/she is able to collect data by means of empirical methods, evaluate and present them clearly in textual or graphic form.
