In this module, the basic conditions of the relationship between music and text as well as music as text in European music are studied. In the two courses, which are coordinated in terms of content, the focus is first of all on the different strategies of the musicalisation of texts from the Middle Ages to the present day under the provisions of declamation, verse, speech-sound, phrase and syntax as well as the possibilities of text-generated musical semantics. Subsequently, specific musical reading skills will be practised on the basis of exemplary scores and the understanding of different typefaces of written music.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has basic experiences of the relationship between music and language as well as the resulting musical compositions and genres. He/she is able to read scores appropriately and to classify them historically as well as to describe and interpret musical textures.
