In this module, the social function of Musicology is studied. The possible occupational activities of musicologists and their cultural and educational policy context are taken into account. The focus is on the exchange with representatives of other subjects relevant to the occupation, networking with cultural institutions as well as coaching offers for professional qualification. Based on specific cultural events, university or non-university practical projects are encouraged, supervised and evaluated. The practical application of specific academic working methods is practised as well as basic skills in the management of cultural and music mediation projects.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has a reflected self-awareness as a practically active musicologist and has gained an insight into possible vocational* fields as an example. He/she is familiar with, for example, functional text types and forms of presentation and is able to follow and participate in cultural and cultural-political discussions. He/she is able to participate in the planning, realisation and evaluation of cultural projects.
