Based on an overarching choice of issues, the course furnishes a synoptic overview of applicable law in Germany and the German judicial system respectively of the history of law and the state-church law in Germany. The fields of German law, their development and the organisation of the judiciary or the basis of legal theory (Roman/Germanic) and the historical development of German law are pointed out in essence to impart important knowledge about the formation of laws and the practice of administration of justice in Germany.
Intended learning outcomes
Students gain an overview of the key developments in German law and thereby deepen their basic knowledge of one or more chronological or thematic areas under the consideration of various important aspects. They are able to integrate this area/these areas in an overall context and to identify interdependencies. They expand their frame of reference to European and non-European aspects. They are able to choose suitable tools and methods and to deploy them appropriately. The students are able to critically analyse and interpret sources and specialised literature as well as to present their evaluations in an appropriate manner.
