Contents
In this module we study and evaluate teaching/learning approaches to sports and movement fields for individuals and teams and apply them in the field of big physical education games and trend sports. The students test their skills and competencies in sport didactics in practice in accordance with differentiated guidelines regarding performance and teaching.
Intended learning outcomes
The students acquire advanced knowledge and competencies in teaching individual sports and team sports and in creating exercise settings for individuals and teams. They have advanced didactic and motor competencies in the field of teaching/learning processes for teams and in creating recreational exercise settings. They acquire these competencies by conducting exemplary exercises in the ball sports basketball, volleyball and handball and in various recreational sports. They are able to transfer their knowledge and competencies to other teaching/learning situations of individual sports and team sports and to the creation of exercise settings for individuals and teams.
