Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German)
S + S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)
Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)
a) written examination (approx. 120 minutes) or b) oral examination of one candidate each (approx. 30 minutes) or c) presentation (approx. 15 to 30 minutes) with written elaboration (approx. 10 to 15 pages) or d) term paper (approx. 15 to 20 pages) or e) portfolio (maximum 20 pages). Note: Portfolios record the learning process and progress of students. The compilation of documents includes preliminary considerations put down in writing and first drafts as well as reflections on both progress and obstacles in the learning process itself. In addition to acquiring knowledge and skills, the main aim of the portfolio is to develop metacognitive skills that will help students direct their own learning processes independently and/or with the support of their learning groups.
