Contents
This course conveys basic ideas and concepts, scientific methods, models and approaches, and, especially theological argumentation strategies in the fields of the criteria of discrimination of poverty and gender.
Intended learning outcomes
Students will acquire the basic concepts concerning the criteria of discrimination of poverty and gender with regards to a profession in diversity management. They are able to distinguish between different models, approaches, and argumentations in these fields. Furthermore, students are able to name social key problems of poverty and gender. Students can identify mechanisms of exclusion and practices of inclusion while assessing current examples.
