Contents
Basic didactic concepts and derivations, regarding pupils with intellectual disabilities. General didactic theories and their transfer to special educational needs. Selected concepts and methods for teaching in the field of intellectual disabilities. Thereby, we also reflect upon for pupils with profound and multiple learning disabilities.
Intended learning outcomes
The students elaborate basic knowledge from previous, general courses. They gain insights into special educational needs by expanding their basic knowledge, interpreting special demands, and deriving conclusions for teaching pupils with intellectual disabilities. By reflecting upon teaching and educating people with profound and multiple learning disabilities, the students develop a clear position on how to shape education for these pupils.
