Contents
In this seminar, we carry out instructed teaching practice in water with pupils with profound multiple disabilities in order to familiarise them with the water and to stimulate their perception.
Intended learning outcomes
The participants acquire basic professional and methodological competencies in designing movement-oriented classes for pupils with profound multiple disabilities. The participants acquire special action and self-competencies by advancing their skills in interpreting and properly reacting to the basic expressions of people with profound multiple disabilities.
