Duration	Module level	Other prerequisites
1 semester	undergraduate	Admission prerequisite to assessment: one presentation (60 minutes) per seminar and one written elaboration (6 to 10 pages) in one seminar.
Contents
The module provides deeper knowledge of central topics, theories and findings of instructional psychology and its relation to digital media. The lecture provides an overview of current approaches to teaching-learning research and instructional design. In the seminars, participants acquire more in-depth insights into selected topics (e. g. self-regulated learning, motivation and knowledge acquisition; topics will vary).
Intended learning outcomes
Students will acquire expertise and practical skills that will be useful for both their academic and their professional lives. This includes a more in-depth knowledge of theories, methods and findings of instructional psychology as well as a basic knowledge of the application of instructional psychology. The skills acquired in this course will also facilitate the students' transition to the Master's programme and will be useful in many ways for their future careers.
