Contents
The module offers the opportunity to choose from a defined selection of courses from the various subfields of psychology - provided that access can be made possible within the framework of the admission restrictions. The module thus conveys basic theories, methods and results of the different sub-fields of psychology, e.g. cognitive psychology, social psychology, differential psychology or general psychology.

Intended learning outcomes
The students are familiar with basic theories, methods and results from the respective subfield of psychology and gain an overview of the central questions and the subject area of the different psychological fields. In addition to the importance for their research-related competencies, they also learn about references to application-related issues.

Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)
V (2) + V (2)

Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus) written examination (approx. 120 minutes)

Allocation of places
max. 15 places. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated by lot.
