Contents
The module discusses the explicit and implicit concepts of a human-being which are connected to the structure of educational thinking as well as acting and which have got an impact on the understanding of education and learning. It focusses on the conditions and potentials of being a human-being in specific historical, cultural and biographic forms.
Intended learning outcomes
The students understand the potential of a person within his or her sociohistorical variabilities. They have got insight into the relation of the ideas of education/ learning and into the dimensions which are characteristic for a human-being. They have a got acquired a critically-reflexive awareness considering the potentials and limits of the question of what defines the human-being.
