Contents
German contents available but not translated yet. This lecture provides an overview of the history of psychology, including the development of psychotherapy and other applications. Students gain insights into the historical and scientific-historical contexts of the emergence and development of various basic areas and fields of application of psychology.
Intended learning outcomes
The module serves as an introduction to the scientific and social contexts of the emergence and development of psychology and thus the acquisition of the central professional competence to reflect on the situation of the subject and the profession of psychology within the wider scientific landscape and society as a whole. In addition, central theoretical and methodological approaches of psychological research and practice are learned to assess their historical dependencies. These competences are designed to be transferred and applied to other basic and applied subjects in the BSc.Part module: Abbreviation: o6-PSY-EiG-1 Version: 2009-WS Title: Introduction to the History of Psychology. Degree of obligation: obligatory SWS: 2 ECTS-Points: 3

Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)
written examination (approx. 60 minutes) Language of assessment: German and/or English
Allocation of places
Only as part of pool of general key skills (ASQ): maximum 10 places. There are no restrictions with regard to available places for students of the degree subjects Psychology (Bachelor of Science, 180 ECTS credits). The number specified is the total number of places that will be allocated to students of other degree subjects in the SFB (list of modules) of which this module is listed. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated according to the number of subject semesters. Among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. A waiting list will be maintained and places re-allocated by lot as they become available.
