In this module, the students work on a pre-defined empirical research project from the subject area of Industrial and Organisational Psychology under the guidance of a supervisor.
Intended learning outcomes
The students learn to deduce a question from research literature and to translate this question into an empirical research design. They advance their skills in evaluating and properly interpreting empirical data. Furthermore, they focus on the practical application of the results (e.g. developing interventions for organisations). The module prepares the students for the independent realisation of research projects.
