Contents
In this module, the students acquire basic knowledge of the theories and findings in the field of psychological processes underlying social interaction. The lecture comprises the subject areas, theories and methods of Social Psychology, including applied socio-psychological questions. It focuses on social perception, stereotypes and prejudices, social influence, the Self in a social context, attraction, close relationships, group interaction as well as conflict and cooperation. In the second part of the module, the students carry out exercises on the subject contents and critically examine relevant literature to prepare for the examination.
Intended learning outcomes
The students acquire professional skills and social competencies, which can be useful in everyday situations (e.g. for solving social conflicts and central problems of social influenceability). They gain profound professional knowledge of central subject areas, theories and methods of Social Psychology while also learning to transfer this basic knowledge to application subjects, especially the one's of the Master's degree programme. The students acquire competencies in evaluating and comparing the quality of scientific findings, methods and theories.
