Contents
Long-term mediate and immediate class planning (e.g. school year/term planning, sequencing of learning contents and goals), conception of teaching units based on technical knowledge of subject didactics and Speech and Language Pathology, evaluation of the teaching attempts in view of scientific quality criteria.
Intended learning outcomes
Self- and social competence: The students are able to discuss and evaluate their own and other students' teaching plans and attempts in a methodological and critical manner. They make own teaching attempts to test themselves as teachers and therefore develop pedagogical competencies and learn to critically evaluate their own pedagogical actions. Methodological competence: The students are able to independently plan long-term or medium-term lesson stages and to plan, carry out and critically evaluate classes according to technical, subject-didactic, general and special educational criteria, especially criteria of Speech and Language Pathology. Subject and professional competence: The students have knowledge of general didactics, instructional psychology and didactic approaches of Speech and Language Pathology.
