Pedagogical action as a non-standardisable, personalised practice of intervention essentially means taking action in uncertain situations. It is always about imparting general pedagogical knowledge in the corresponding individual situation. The way someone manages these uncertain situations indicates their level of pedagogical professionalism. Pedagogical professionalism can be extended to pedagogical competencies (which competencies should a pedagogue have?), pedagogical relationship building (how should a pedagogical relationship be build?) and pedagogical personality (which pedagogical attitudes and mindsets are useful and necessary in pedagogical practice?). The module "Pedagogical Personality and Qualification" addresses these facets of pedagogical professionalism.
