Contents
An awareness of the correlation between the areas of aesthetics, culture, and religion with special attention to their individual nature and with an understanding of current questions and problems and, in particular, of how they appear in the media.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have developed cultural-hermeneutic skills and techniques. They will be able to decipher everyday phenomena, societal processes of self-interpretation, ethical discourses, or works of art from various art disciplines in the context of theological or ethical theories. They will be able to develop balanced judgements and interrelate them with other phenomena.
