Contents
Biblical theology. Grounding in the texts of the Old Testament, their connection, meaning in a historical context, and introduction to the exegetical methods.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will be familiar with essential concepts and will have developed subject-specific thinking in the area of Old Testament theology. They will be able to understand and interpret the content of key texts of the Old Testament and to interrelate them with other texts. They will have developed the ability to situate issues within a historical context in a problem-orientated manner. In addition, they will have developed the fundamental abilities to verbally express this knowledge in an appropriate manner.
