The New Testament. Grounding in biblical texts, their connection, meaning in a historical context, and introduction to the exegetical methods.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will be familiar with essential concepts and have developed subject-specific thinking in the area of New Testament theology. They will be able to understand and interpret the content of key texts and to interrelate them with other texts. They will have developed the ability to situate issues within a historical context in a problem-orientated manner. In addition, they will have developed the fundamental abilities to verbally express this knowledge in an appropriate manner.
