Contents
Analytical and hermeneutic reading as well as interpretation of gospels and epistles. Reading New Testament texts in the context of ancient views.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will be familiar with essential concepts and will have developed subject-specific thinking in the area of New Testament theology. They will have developed the ability to situate issues within a historical context in a problem-orientated manner. In addition, they will have developed the fundamental abilities to verbally express this knowledge in an appropriate manner. They will be able to understand and interpret the content of the texts and to interrelate them with each other.
