Contents
Advanced knowledge of biblical texts (Old Testament and New Testament), their connection, their meaning in a historical context. Grounding in exegetical methods and in research history (Old Testament and New Testament).
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will be familiar with essential concepts and will have developed subject-specific thinking in the area of biblical theology. They will have developed the ability to situate issues within a historical context in a problem-orientated manner. In addition, they will have developed the fundamental abilities to verbally express this knowledge in an appropriate manner. They will be able to understand and interpret the content of texts from the Old and the New Testaments and interrelate them with other texts. They will recognise differences and similarities between the different biblical theologies. They will have developed a fundamental knowledge of the research history of the Old and New Testaments.
