Contents
Practical section 1: A placement at an institution (publisher, social service, or other institution) with a duration of at least two weeks. At the end of their placements, students will prepare a report on their experiences relating to a dogmatic, ethical, church historical, theological, or exegetical problem. Practical section 2: Writing and publishing a review of a current publication.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will be able to reflect upon their own practical experiences and observations relating to topics in theology, in a problem and solution-oriented manner, and to convey current situations through theoretical approaches. They will be able to write short texts tailored to an audience and will have gained insights into the stages of creating a text from the first draft to publication. They will recognise publishing market mechanisms.
