| Discussing primary sources and research literature, this course will convey essentials, methods, and ways of thinking in dogmatics, the theory of religion, and church history.  |                          |   |
| Intended learning outcomes  |                          |   |
| At the end of the course, students will be familiar with essential concepts and will have developed subject-specific thinking in the areas of dogmatics, the theory of religion, and church history. They will be able to comprehend and reproduce theological texts. They will have developed the ability to situate issues within a historical context in a problem-orientated manner. In addition, they will have developed the fundamental abilities to verbally express this knowledge in an appropriate manner.  |                          |   |
