Contents

The seminar will focus on special problems in the areas of procurement, production, logistics or business management. Students will independently work on the respective problem and write a seminar (term) paper. Usually, this will be largely literature based with students learning how to carry out structured literature analyses and prepare systematic evaluations. In individual cases, students may also conduct empirical research of their own or further develop formal models. Students will be required to deliver a talk on the subject in class.

Intended learning outcomes

The students will be able to study advanced problems on their own and structure them in a (seminar) paper. They will learn to present the central results and discuss related issues in class.

Method of assessment

(a) term paper (approx. 15 pages) and presentation (approx. 20 minutes), weighted 2:1 or (b) term paper (approx. 20 to 25 pages)

Language of assessment: German, English

Allocation of places

Number of places: 15. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated according to the average grade of the two modules 12-BPL-G and 12-BPL-F; among applicants with the same average grade, places will be allocated by lot.
