Contents

This seminar deals with current topics of entrepreneurship, innovation and corporate sustainability. Students are required to independently analyse a selected topic and to write a term paper. The term paper may be based on literature, empirical analysis or independent work with formal models. In addition, students are required to deliver a talk.

Intended learning outcomes

After completing the seminar, the students acquired detailed knowledge of important fields of entrepreneurship, innovation or corporate sustainability. They are also able to process and to structure their research findings in a written assignment and to present it in a lecture.

Allocation of places

Number of places: 20. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated in a standardised procedure among all applicants irrespective of their subjects according to the following quotas: Quota 1 (50% of places): total number of ECTS credits already achieved in the respective degree subject; among applicants with the same number of ECTS credits achieved, places will be allocated by lot. Quota 2 (25% of places): number of subject semesters of the respective applicant; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Quota 3 (25% of places): allocation by lot. In this procedure, applicants who already have successfully completed at least one module component of the respective module will be given preferential consideration. Places on all courses of the module component with a restricted number of places will be allocated in the same procedure. A waiting list will be maintained and places re-allocated as they become available.
