Contents
Organisation and structure of presentations, proper preparation of notes. Preparing and holding short presentations in order to improve personal appearance. Direct feedback from the speaker and the participants on each presentation. Video analysis of the presentations. Types and relevance of non-verbal communication. Communication models, self-perception and public image. Dealing with stage fright and disruptions during presentations.

Intended learning outcomes
The students know how to appear professional during (oral) presentations or speeches, be it at university, work or in private life. They are skilled in using different types of presentation media. Furthermore, the students are able to recognise their own strengths and weaknesses and can therefore improve their competencies.
