| The course consists of three modules with three units each. The topics of the course correspond to different personal fields of action of the students. Module I deals with topics related to personal experiences in Germany. Module II covers the students' everyday life and Module III expands the learners' scope of action to include institutional conversational situations. In the course, receptive skills are developed through authentic listening and reading texts and written language production through forum tasks. The monological and dialogic text types provide students with language patterns for oral language production. All three modules end with an online module test on the platform. The online course is tutored, which means that participants receive individual feedback on the tests and forum assignments they have completed.   |                          |   |
| Intended learning outcomes  |                          |   |
| This course provides students with a solid grammar base (structures) for everyday communication situations at level A2 of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Moreover, the acquired knowledge serves to integrate into everyday university life and to establish contact with German students. At the end of the course, students will be able to understand simple sentences and frequently used expressions, communicate in simple, routine situations, and use simple means to describe their own background and education, their immediate surroundings, and things related to immediate needs.  |                          |   |
| Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German)   |                          |   |
| Ü (2)  |                          |   |
| Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)   |                          |   |
| a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) written examination (approx. 60 to 90 minutes) and oral assessment (5 to 10 minutes, e. g. contribution to the discussion, group presentation) weighted 3:1 or c) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 10 pages): Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of assessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and reading exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. The specified types of examinations a), b) and c) can also be used as electronic distance examinations in accordance with Section 1, Paragraph 5 of the Framework Regulations for conducting electronic distance examinations, online exams or other examination formats as an alternative or replacement for face-to-face examinations in connection with the regulations of these framework regulations, in particular Section 3 (4). The lecturer announces the exam format at the beginning of the course. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered |                          |   |
| Allocation of places  |                          |   |
| min. 5, max. 25 places In the event that the number of applications exceeds the number of available places, the number of places available will be allocated as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The allocation of available places is based on the order in which registrations are received.</li> <li>2. Spaces that are subsequently vacated will be raffled in the follow-up procedure.</li> </ol>   |                          |   |

In an online course format, the number of participants is limited to a maximum of 20.
