Contents

In the course of the course, students work on topic areas oriented to their interests. These are debates currently taking place in the media from the areas of society, politics, economics and culture. Topics are developed in small groups, material (texts, videos, etc.) is collected and prepared in the form of presentations, which serve as a basis for further discussions and statements.

Intended learning outcomes

The course is based on level C2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages of the Council of Europe. The goal for students is to,
- gain insight into a selection of current political, economic and social debates in German-speaking countries,
- to extract key statements from press texts and to be able to summarize texts that are complex in terms of language and content, either orally or in writing,
- to be able to view a debate from different angles,
- be able to deliver their own well-founded statements on various topics, and
- to be able to use the means of speech for debating and arguing.

Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)

Ü (2)

Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)

a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or
b) written examination (approx. 60 to 90 minutes) and oral assessment (5 to 10 minutes, e. g. contribution to the discussion, group presentation) weighted 3:1 or
c) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 10 pages): Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of assessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and reading exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class.
The specified types of examinations a), b) and c) can also be used as electronic distance examinations in accordance with Section 1, Paragraph 5 of the Framework Regulations for conducting electronic distance examinations, online exams or other examination formats as an alternative or replacement for face-to-face examinations in connection with the regulations of these framework regulations, in particular Section 3 (4). The lecturer announces the exam format at the beginning of the course.
Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered

Allocation of places

min. 5, max. 25 places
In the event that the number of applications exceeds the number of available places, the number of places available will be allocated as follows:
1. The allocation of available places is based on the order in which registrations are received.
2. Spaces that are subsequently vacated will be raffled in the follow-up procedure.
In an online course format, the number of participants is limited to a maximum of 20.
