Julius-Maximilians-UNIVERSITÄT WÜRZBURG

Module description

test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisation in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we can simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced actions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to communicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) Ú (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readie exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places.	Module title					Abbreviation head of Language Centre (ZFS) Language Centre (ZFS) ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s) 3 numerical grade Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester undergraduate Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents ECTS Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s) 3 numerical grade - Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester undergraduate Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualise on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we cas simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to communicate fietrively within the discipline of German language and Iterature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (s to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessment may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of exercise. The total scope/length of the analy/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment of fored: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places Imole and/or written assess	Module coordinator				Module offered by
3 numerical grade Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester undergraduate Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisat on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we ca simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic Germa nlanguage skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding si tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) U (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of ral forms of assessement include but are not limited to toshort presentations, prese	head of Language Centre (ZFS)				Language Centre (ZfS)
Duration Module level Other prerequisites 1 semester undergraduate Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisat on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we ca simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every senester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessment will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessmin include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readit exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment of fored: In the semester in which the course is offrerd Allocation of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Allocat	ECTS	Method of grading Only after succ. compl. of module(s)
1 semester undergraduate Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisal on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we cz simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) () (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessement offered: In the semester in which the co	3	numerical grade
test for university admission, DSH) required. Contents Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisat on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we cc simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) Ü (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of all forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered	Duration		Module level	Other prerequisites
Groups and goals are heterogeneous. We have to reflect on the opportunities and limitations of individualisat on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we ca simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding si tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm incate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) Ü (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German) Ü (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Example se of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the si me number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information - Gen here to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching degree programmes) - C Mo	1 semester		undergraduate	Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (German language test for university admission, DSH) required.
on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we ca simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape a analyse a teaching sequence. Intended learning outcomes Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding si tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm incate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) Ü (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the si me number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information - - - Workload 90 h - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -	Contents
Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced ac demic German language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding si tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) U(2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examp- lees of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the sa- me number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) 	on in the classroom (learner autonomy / differentiated classroom activities / inclusion classrooms) and we can simulate mixed-ability teaching situations. In this course, students will work in pairs and we will video-tape and demic German language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding si tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to comm nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature. Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language – if other than German) Ü (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessm include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examp- les of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the sa me number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO 1 (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Intended learning outcomes
Ú (2) Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Students gain sound communication skills (written and oral) in academic German. They develop advanced aca- demic German language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding situa- tions, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in academic German terminology and are able to commu- nicate effectively within the discipline of German language and literature.
Method of assessment (type, scope, language – if other than German, examination offered – if not every semester, information on wheth module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German) module is creditable for bonus) a) written examination (approx. 90 minutes) or b) 2 to 5 assessments (5 to 7 pages, approx. 10 minutes) Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessme include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examp- les of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the sa me number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Ü (2)
Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examples of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and readi exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class. Assessment offered: In the semester in which the course is offered Allocation of places min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload go h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module is creditable for bonus)
min. 5, max. 25 places. Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Assessments may take a written or an oral form or a combination of these two forms. The number and type of as- sessments will be specified by the lecturer at the beginning of the course. Examples of oral forms of assessment include but are not limited to short presentations, presentations and contributions to the discussion. Examp- les of written forms of assessment include but are not limited to text production as well as listening and reading exercises. The total scope/length of oral and/or written assessments will be announced in class.
Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. Additional information Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Allocation of places
 Workload 90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Places will be allocated primarily according to the number of subject semesters; among applicants with the sa-
90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Additional information
90 h Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in Teaching cycle Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Workload
Teaching cycle: Once a year Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	90 h
Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes) Module appears in	Teaching cycle
 Module appears in	Teachir	ng cycle	e: Once a year
••	Referred to in LPO I (examination regulations for teaching-degree programmes)
••
keinem Studiengang zugeordnet	Module	e appea	ars in
	keinem	Studie	engang zugeordnet

JMU Würzburg • generated 29.03.2024 • Module data record 130439