Contents

Consolidation of ethical-theological thinking, speaking, and writing skills. Connecting all topics in ethics with other topics in theology.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the course, students will have developed the necessary knowledge in the ethical disciplines. They will be able to express, both orally and in writing, contents in their complex interrelation with other topics in theology. Students will have adopted a supra-individual position on all topics in ethics based upon an increased awareness of problems and sound arguments. They will be able to apply topics in ethics and theology within the context of current social problems and discuss potential solutions.

Contents

This course aims to consolidate the students' theological thinking, expression, and writing skills on the basis of current debates and important texts.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the course, students will have developed a comprehensive knowledge of systematic theology. They will be able to recognise topics in their complex interrelations with all other topics in theology - in particular theories of religion - and to describe them orally and in writing. Students will have adopted a supra-individual position on all topics based on a sharpened awareness of problems and sound arguments. They will be able to interpret topics in theology within the context of current social problems and discuss potential solutions.
