| Introduction to sources of the Egyptian religious history. According to the previous knowledge of the seminar participants, the sources will be read in the original Egyptian language, however, it is not expected that students have knowledge of the Egyptian language. As religion affects numerous areas of the Egyptian culture, the module basically introduces to the mental world of Egyptians. |                          |                                             |

| Students are able to identify basic problems and positions in philosophy and to describe key epochs in the history of philosophy. They are able to apply general principles of argumentation and to present philosophical issues in a structured and linguistically appropriate way.                                                                                                                                                 |                          |                                             |

| At the end of the course, students will be able to write short texts tailored to an audience and will have gained insights into the stages of creating a text from the first draft to publication. Students will know review bodies and their significance in academics. They will recognise publishing market mechanisms. |                              |                                                       |
