Content and Objectives of the Programme

Students of the Bachelor programme History of Medieval and Modern Art (main subject, 85 ECTS) acquire deepened knowledge on the changing forms of artistic expression in Europe and North America within a period stretching from the early Middle Ages to the threshold of the present day. Besides general fundamental scientific qualifications and analytical/methodical competences, students acquire deepened knowledge of the most important landmarks in all three artistic genres (architecture, sculpture, painting) and of specifics of their form and iconography, developing an awareness of the historicity of research methods. They acquire competence in the use of subject-specific terminology with regard to architecture and library and book sciences. They become familiar with handling originals and receive insights into the resulting complexes of questions regarding heritage management, restoration and conservation. Students develop a deeper understanding of the historical circumstances in which works of arts came into being and the creative achievement involved and possess the capability for local contextualization. They acquire fundamental knowledge in Museology and develop sensitivity for the needs of the recipients in the communication of art historical topics.

Conventions

Unless otherwise stated, courses and assessments will be held in German, assessments will be offered every semester and modules are not creditable for bonus.

Notes

Should there be the option to choose between several methods of assessment, the lecturer will agree with the module coordinator on the method of assessment to be used in the current semester by two weeks after the start of the course at the latest and will communicate this in the customary manner.

Should the module comprise more than one graded assessment, all assessments will be equally weighted, unless otherwise stated below.

Should the assessment comprise several individual assessments, successful completion of the module will require successful completion of all individual assessments.

In accordance with the general regulations governing the degree subject described in this module catalogue:

ASPO2009

associated official publications (FSB (subject-specific provisions)/SFB (list of modules)):

16-Mar-2011 (2011-28)

This module handbook seeks to render, as accurately as possible, the data that is of statutory relevance according to the examination regulations of the degree subject. However, only the FSB (subject-specific provisions) and SFB (list of modules) in their officially published versions shall be legally binding. In the case of doubt, the provisions on, in particular, module assessments specified in the FSB/SFB shall prevail.
