Overview of relevant support concepts in view of behavioural abnormalities; overview of the institutions relevant to Education for People with Emotional and Behavioural Disorders; overview of key and special phenomena of behavioural abnormalities; discussion of selected phenomena regarding manifestations, diagnostics and differential diagnostics, explanatory approaches (also: complexity of influencing factors) and especially regarding starting points, guidelines and concepts of pedagogical, therapeutic-pedagogical, psychosocial and psychotherapeutic prevention and intervention.
Intended learning outcomes
The examination of phenomena and their backgrounds promotes the students' professional competence: They are able to recognize and evaluate problems in the context of behavioural disorders. At the same time, their methodological competencies are fostered: They can choose approaches and concepts according to practical problems and institutional contexts. In the practical parts of the module, the students advance their social competence of problem solving. They further develop self-competence by gaining confidence in dealing with behavioural abnormalities in pedagogical contexts and by increasing the ability to judge their own possibilities and limits in this area.

The students are introduced to school practice of the individual support focus areas of special-needs schools as well as to practice and special educational organisation of the individual subjects at an early stage. After a period of classroom observation, the students plan their own classes, implement special educational support measures and make multiple teaching attempts. Furthermore, they take on the following tasks: Knowledge of special educational tasks and goals of the curriculum for the individual grades of the respective form of special-needs school including support in preschool institutions; mobile special education assistance (msH) and mobile special education services (MSD), classroom observations regarding different approaches to achieve learning goals as well as regarding media use and possibilities of monitoring learning progress, determination of special educational needs of individual pupils and formulation of diagnosis-oriented education plans; knowledge of possibilities of individual support in the context of pedagogy and psychology.
Intended learning outcomes
Self- and social competence: The students are able to discuss and evaluate their own and other students' teaching plans and attempts in a methodological and critical manner. They make own teaching attempts to test themselves as teachers and therefore develop pedagogical competencies and learn to critically evaluate their own pedagogical actions. Methodological competence: The students are able to independently plan long-term or medium-term lesson stages and to plan, carry out and critically evaluate classes according to technical, subject-didactic, general and special educational criteria, especially criteria of Education for People with Emotional and Behavioural Disorders. Subject and professional competence: In the lectures on didactics, the students have acquired knowledge of general didactics, instructional psychology and didactic approaches and methods of Education for People with Emotional and Behavioural Disorders. They utilize these competencies to plan, conduct and evaluate teaching attempts.

For a selected topic of pedagogy and/or psychology students review the state of research and theory , develop and examine their own research questions and report their results. This might result in an empirical study, the development of a theory-oriented concept, the development of a pedagogical or therapeutic-pedagogical concept, an exemplary, evaluation-based application in class, the writing of a reader or journal article etc. A cooperation with a institution in the field is also possible. The contents of the module are related to the module o6-V-ProjPPA.
Intended learning outcomes
The students know and are able to apply approaches to scientific questions (professional and methodological competence); they have advanced problem-specific knowledge of pedagogical questions and psychological perspectives regarding behavioural disorders (professional competence); they know possibilities of theoretical and empirical data research (methodological competence); they are able to review complex problems in group work whilst sticking to a self-developed work plan in a target-oriented manner (social competence); they independently execute a complex task over a longer period of time with a high level of self-learning (self-competence).

Contents
Principles and theories of intercultural competence, acquisition of basic terms, intercultural communication and conflicts (in theory and practice), intercultural competence training, multifactorial backgrounds of "migration-induced behavioural abnormalities", prevention and intervention measures against racism and xenophobia.
Intended learning outcomes
The students have basic knowledge of intercultural action and can independently apply theoretical principles of multicultural work in a reflected manner. In doing so, the students develop awareness of the effects of social changes and framework conditions on migrants and of interpersonal relationships and professional work in heterogeneous, intercultural fields of action.
