Subdivided Module Catalogue
for the Pool of General Transferable Skills (ASQ Pool)

Bachelor's programmes
Responsible: JMU Würzburg
Abbreviations used

Course types: E = field trip, K = colloquium, O = conversatorium, P = placement/lab course, R = project, S = seminar, T = tutorial, Ü = exercise, V = lecture

Term: SS = summer semester, WS = winter semester

Methods of grading: NUM = numerical grade, B/NB = (not) successfully completed

Regulations: (L)ASPO = general academic and examination regulations (for teaching-degree programmes), FSB = subject-specific provisions, SFB = list of modules

Other: A = thesis, LV = course(s), PL = assessment(s), TN = participants, VL = prerequisite(s)

Conventions

Unless otherwise stated, courses and assessments will be held in German, assessments will be offered every semester and modules are not creditable for bonus.

Notes

Should there be the option to choose between several methods of assessment, the lecturer will agree with the module coordinator on the method of assessment to be used in the current semester by two weeks after the start of the course at the latest and will communicate this in the customary manner.

Should the module comprise more than one graded assessment, all assessments will be equally weighted, unless otherwise stated below.

Should the assessment comprise several individual assessments, successful completion of the module will require successful completion of all individual assessments.

In accordance with the general regulations governing the degree subject described in this module catalogue:

ASPO2009

associated official publications (FSB (subject-specific provisions)/SFB (list of modules)):

22-Oct-2014 (2014-68) Information on all modules offered as part of the pool of general transferable skills (ASQ-Pool) in the winter term 2014/2015 and the summer term 2015 is listed below. The list is divided into two sections without being further subdivided.

21-Apr-2015 (2015-3)

This module handbook seeks to render, as accurately as possible, the data that is of statutory relevance according to the examination regulations of the degree subject. However, only the FSB (subject-specific provisions) and SFB (list of modules) in their officially published versions shall be legally binding. In the case of doubt, the provisions on, in particular, module assessments specified in the FSB/SFB shall prevail.
This module catalogue provides information on the modules offered as part of the pool of general transferable skills (ASQ Pool) for students pursuing a Bachelor's degree at Julius-Maximilians-Universität Würzburg. It is divided into two sections listing the modules offered as part of the University’s ASQ Pool in the winter semester and the subsequent summer semester without being further subdivided.

Contents

An introduction to the theory of teaching topics in religion in the context of the other aspects of religious education. The module provides systematic training in the areas of theology and religious education for future religious education teachers. It focuses on didactic and methodological aspects: teaching and learning in the religious education classroom from an education theory point of view.

Intended learning outcomes

At the end of the course, students will have developed a reflected understanding of phenomena in religion and religious education. They will have developed the ability to recognise the connections between religion and education and take their own position on religious education.

Contents
Media literacy in an academic context: research strategies and tools; working with electronic image databases; searching for images on the internet; introduction to legal issues associated with the use of image sources (copyrights, exploitation rights); production of new image sources and practical use of image sources during university studies.

Intended learning outcomes
Students know how and where to search for images to use in presentations. They know how to use and add to the image database of the Institute of Art History that is currently in the process of being created. Students know what to keep in mind when using copyrighted images and are also able to present these images. The module equips students with the knowledge and skills necessary to prepare image-based scholarly presentations.

Contents
The course provides a basic understanding of the driving forces behind business cycles and growth processes and discusses approaches for a sensible economic policy. After a brief introduction to national accounts, the short and medium-term effects of fiscal and monetary policies on goods and money markets in closed as well as open economies are discussed. In this context, the volatility of macroeconomic variables such as GDP, interest rates, inflation and unemployment are analysed in the economic cycle. In addition, the determinants of long-term economic growth and causes of international differences in living standards are examined. Here, the course will focus on recent developments such as monetary and fiscal policy in the euro area.

Intended learning outcomes
Analytisches Verständnis von grundlegenden makroökonomischen Modellen. Einblicke in die Wirkungsweise wirtschaftspolitischer Maßnahmen und die Fähigkeit eigenständige fundierte Analysen zu makroökonomischen Themenkomplexen zu erstellen.

Contents

From an economic point of view, the lecture will acquaint students with how consumers and companies make decisions (consumption, labour demand, production decision). Starting with a brief introduction to the theory of preferences, the course will discuss the optimal consumption decision of private households and derive the resulting demand for goods. Following a vivid introduction to the theory of production, the supply of goods of companies will be determined. The equilibrium defined by the two optimisation processes will be analysed with regard to its efficiency characteristics. The course will discuss the effects of market imperfections on the decentralised equilibrium and will provide students with a brief insight into game theory and the theory of insurance markets. In addition, topics such decisions under risk and risky asset markets will be discussed.

Intended learning outcomes

Students are enabled to make up their mind on economic policy measures, like government interventions due to monopoly power or tax measures. Basic solution concepts are introduced for a vast array of microeconomic problems at a basic level.

Contents
The module will provide students with an insight into economics. The course will first discuss how markets work. The resulting market result - traded amounts and price - will be analysed and different starting points for economic policy measures (e. g. regulation of monopolies, introduction of minimum wages, environmental policy) will be discussed. Students will then acquire an overview of macroeconomic interrelationships. In this context, the course will focus on providing students with an understanding of business cycles (unemployment, inflation) and growth processes. Current issues such as monetary and fiscal policy in the euro area will also be discussed.

Intended learning outcomes
After completing the module, students should be able to describe the modern business economics as a scientific discipline in its institutional economic expression and to master appropriate level in their problem-solving techniques used on the character of an orientation session.

Contents
The course offers basic insights into the principles of economics. We analyse how markets work, i.e. how consumers form their demand and how suppliers make production decisions. On the basis of first insights into market economies, we analyse why governments might want to intervene. In this context, we focus on monopoly, environmental issues and minimum wages in labour markets.

In addition to micro topics, we also focus on macroeconomic aspects and analyse why we observe business cycles (unemployment, inflation) and long term economic growth. We also address topics related to monetary and fiscal policy in the euro area.

Intended learning outcomes
The students have a basic knowledge of economics, with which they can analyze complex economic relationships. They can deal critically with current economic policy issues and make an independent judgment. In addition, elementary mathematical techniques for solving micro pores and macroeconomic models are mediated.

Contents

In this module, the students acquire basic knowledge of the central psychological theories and findings of the research fields of motivation and emotion. The lecture comprises the subject areas, theories, methods, application and practice of Psychology of Motivation and Psychology of Emotion. The seminar elaborates on selected, alternating subject areas (e.g. emotion regulation, impulsivity, aggression).

Intended learning outcomes

The students acquire professional and practical skills, which are useful for the further course of studies and for their future occupation. The students acquire profound professional knowledge of central subject areas, theories and methods of Psychology of Emotion and Motivation, while also learning to transfer this basic knowledge to application subjects, especially the one's of the Master's degree programme. Furthermore, the students already acquire theoretical, empirical and application-oriented competencies, which can be useful in professional life (e.g. organising work processes in a motivating manner), after finishing the first university degree programme (BSc.).

Contents

In this module, the students acquire basic knowledge of thinking, feeling and behaviour in a social context. They become acquainted with different subject areas, theories and methods of Social Psychology and with applied questions, e.g. regarding persuasion or prejudices. They discuss empirical findings and interrelate these with theories and everyday phenomena.

Intended learning outcomes

The students acquire professional skills and social competencies, which can be useful in everyday situations (e.g. for solving social conflicts and central problems of social influenceability). Additionally, the students become acquainted with the logics of empirical research and its validity for everyday phenomena and are therefore enabled to differentiate between causation and correlation.

Contents

This module (lecture and seminar) will provide students with an overview of instrument-based methods in biotechnology and biomedicine and the underlying physical principles. It will discuss modern methods for the analysis of biological matter on the molecular and cellular level. These methods include light microscopy, fluorescence spectroscopy, electron microscopy, atomic force microscopy, flow cytometry and microfluidics.

Intended learning outcomes

Students will gain an overview of key methods in biotechnology and their respective advantages and disadvantages. They will learn to decide what method is most suitable for addressing a particular issue.

The aim of the module is to create own websites whilst taking into account different aspects of layout options, user guidance etc. In addition, we discuss the differences and similarities between print media and the internet. Furthermore, we review and analyse popular websites to develop a critical approach to website creation.

Intended learning outcomes

After successfully completing this module, the students have acquired basic knowledge of designing websites. They have basic skills in creating own web presences and are able to critically reflect pre-existing web content.

Contents

The aim of the module is to create own websites whilst taking into account different aspects of layout options, user guidance etc. In addition, we discuss the differences and similarities between print media and the internet. Furthermore, we review and analyse popular websites to develop a critical approach to website creation.

Intended learning outcomes

After successfully completing this module, the students have acquired basic knowledge of designing websites. They have professional skills in creating own web presences and are able to critically reflect pre-existing web content.

Contents
We develop and implement marketing measures to draw attention to the range of services of the Career Service and to increase its popularity amongst students and teachers. In addition, we cooperate with the students to determine their current needs in order to optimise the work of the Career Service. The work placement includes weekly meetings, an analysis of the efficiency of the Career Service so far, the development of new and original target-group-specific measures and the independent implementation of a measure within the team of trainees, using different forms of organisation and (online) media.

Intended learning outcomes
The trainees become acquainted with a variety of marketing measures and their practical application. They learn what to keep in mind when organising events, developing ideas and implementing unusual marketing measures. They are able to develop and apply various methods of editorial work for online marketing (e.g. websites, blogs, Facebook campaigns, live posts). Furthermore, they improve their communication and presentation skills by making personal appearances on different occasions and in front of different groups. The trainees acquire broad competencies in team and project work which also include the evaluation of campaigns and measures on the basis of a documentation which serves as a foundation for the work of the next group of trainees.

Courses

Contents

This course provides an overview of established, current, mostly German-language methods of development diagnostics. By actively participating, the students can practise the execution and interpretation of various test methods. They study general screening processes (age-specific level of development, neuropsychological developmental screening) as well as subject-specific developmental tests (e.g. perception, motor skills, language, attentiveness, reading and writing). The goal is to test and discuss these processes in view of their psychometric quality and especially regarding their practical relevance.

Intended learning outcomes

The students acquire professional and mostly practical skills in the field of development diagnostics, which are useful for the further course of studies as well as for their future occupation. These skills include basic knowledge of evaluation criteria for test methods as well as the independent carrying out of tests with a child and the evaluation and presentation of the test. By carrying out a test with a child, the students acquire first diagnostic competencies.

Other prerequisites
The modules of Altorientalistik (Ancient Near Eastern Studies) that are part of the pool of general transferable skills (ASQ) cannot be chosen in the area of 'general transferable skills' by students of the following subjects: BA Altorientalistik (Ancient Near Eastern Studies) (85 and 60 ECTS credits), BA Alte Welt (Ancient World) (120 and 60 ECTS credits).

Contents
The module gives an overview of the cultural history of Western Asia from the Early Bronze age to the Neo-Babylonian period based primarily on written sources. Lecture course 1: The lecture gives an overview of the emergence, development and structure of cuneiform as well as of other selected ancient Near Eastern writing systems. The geographical distribution, cultural significance, relationships and fundamental structural phenomena of numerous languages of the ancient Near East will be presented. In addition, a systematic genre-oriented survey of the written remains of the ancient Near East will be given, with an emphasis on the history of ancient Near Eastern literature. Lecture course 2: The lecture gives an overview of the history of ancient Western Asia from the beginnings of "civilisation" in Southern Mesopotamia in the middle of the 4th millennium BC to the end of the Neo-Babylonian empire in 539 BC. The emphasis lies upon Mesopotamia, but Southwest Iran, Syria and Anatolia will also be taken into account. Special attention will be paid to the critical analysis of sources. The lecture combines brief survey accounts with a detailed discussion of individual examples.

Intended learning outcomes
The student will acquire an overview knowledge of ancient Near Eastern history and will be able to discuss historical developments and their attestation in written sources critically and in detail on the basis of selected examples. He/she will be familiar with the emergence, development and structure of cuneiform as well as of other selected ancient Near Eastern writing systems. He/she will acquire an overview knowledge of the text corpora of the ancient Near East and of their typical genres.

Abbreviation: 04-AO-GVA-112-m01

Module coordinator: holder of the Chair of Ancient Near Eastern Studies
Module offered by: Chair of Ancient Near Eastern Studies

ECTS: 5
Method of grading: numerical grade
Only after succ. compl. of module(s): --

Duration: 2 semester
Module level: undergraduate
Other prerequisites: The modules of Altorientalistik (Ancient Near Eastern Studies) that are part of the pool of general transferable skills (ASQ) cannot be chosen in the area of 'general transferable skills' by students of the following subjects: BA Altorientalistik (Ancient Near Eastern Studies) (85 and 60 ECTS credits), BA Alte Welt (Ancient World) (120 and 60 ECTS credits).

Contents
The module gives an overview of the cultural history of Western Asia from the Epipalaeolithic period to the Islamic conquest based on archaeological sources. Lecture course 1: The lecture gives an overview of ancient Near Eastern cultural history from the Paleolithic to the end of the Early Bronze Age. The different types of historic monuments and especially the different ceramic styles will be presented in their geographic environment and specific context of discovery and will be diachronically traced. The most important finds and results of important ancient Near Eastern sites will be discussed. In addition, the lecture introduces students to archaeological methods and tools for dating, analysis and systematisation of finds and explains archaeological technical terminology. Lecture course 2: The lecture gives an overview of ancient Near Eastern cultural history from the beginning of the Middle Bronze Age (early second millennium B.C.) to the rise of Islam with an emphasis on the two last pre-Christian millennia. The different types of historic monuments will be presented in their geographic environment and specific context of discovery and will be diachronically traced. The most important finds and results of important and thoroughly excavated ancient Near Eastern cities will be discussed. The description of connections between archaeological finds and historical episodes will be particularly emphasised.

Intended learning outcomes
The student will acquire an overview of the basic lines of ancient Near Eastern cultural history. He/she will be familiar with the predominant types of historic monuments and most important find places and will be able to discuss diachronic developments. He/she will develop a knowledge of archaeological methods and fundamental technical terminology.

Contents:
The module "Event- und Veranstaltungsmanagement 2" ("Event Management 2") builds on module "Event- und Veranstaltungsmanagement 1" ("Event Management 1"), which acquainted students with the fundamental principles of event management. In "Event- und Veranstaltungsmanagement 2", students will mainly work on case studies and will design and implement an event. They will learn how to prepare, implement and follow up a high-profile event. To follow up the event, small groups of students will deliver presentations discussing selected areas of event management. Depending on the selected event, these presentations may focus on:

- Scheduling
- Budgeting
- Project management
- Marketing and public relations
- Staff selection and staff management
- Fundraising and sponsorship
- Cost and financial management
- Professional conditions
- Legal aspects

Intended learning outcomes:
Students have essential soft skills such as teamwork, communication skills, organizational skills and be able to reflect critically before a group the results of their work.

Contents

The course will focus on three main areas:

1. Introduction: What characterises sport? We will focus on its importance for society and the economy. What is sports management? In this context, we will also discuss sports business administration and the professionalisation of sports managements.

2. Integrated sports management: Who are the stakeholders in sport and what are their interests? What characterises integrated sports management and where is it already being used? Practical examples and case studies will illustrate the applicability of the concept.

3. OR in sport: How can OR-methods be used to prepare and improve management decisions (OR stands for operations research and is a collective term for specific mathematical procedures)? In this context, we will work on case studies from areas including sport and health, sporting goods production and stadium construction.

Intended learning outcomes

The students

(i) learn what distinguishes systematic sport management;
(ii) know how to appreciate the big public interest appropriately, which makes a distinct challenge to manage services and events in the sports sector;
(iii) apply methods from the area of the mathematically based operations research and
(iv) can interpret practically oriented case studies and examples from the sports world.

Study Workshop Writing Skills

Module coordinator: team of coordinators at the Faculty of Arts
Module offered by: Office of the Dean of the Faculty of Arts

ECTS: 3

Duration: 1 semester
Module level: undergraduate

Method of grading: Only after succ. compl. of module(s)

Contents:
This module is designed to teach key skills in academic writing. Trained student mentors instruct their peers on how to prepare and plan the process of writing an academic text and how to go about academic research. They also offer advice on writing foreign-language texts and help students practise writing a diverse range of texts that are relevant in their fields of study. Regular completion of actual writing tasks is a core component of this course. Along with peer feedback, students receive feedback and support from their student mentors to enable them to master the specific requirements set by their fields of study.

Intended learning outcomes:
Students achieve an overview of academic writing techniques and essentials as well as citation methods and best academic practice. Having been provided with expert training in academic writing methods, they will be capable of writing any text in their field of study appropriately, with stylistic confidence and using the correct format.

Courses:
K (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)

Method of assessment:
written elaboration (approx. 10 pages total)

Allocation of places:
Number of places: maximum 15. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated as follows: Applicants from the Bachelor’s degree subjects of the Faculty of Arts will be given preferential consideration. The remaining places will be allocated to students of other subjects. These places will be allocated according to the number of subject semesters. Among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. A waiting list will be maintained and places re-allocated as they become available.

Contents:
This module is designed to teach key skills in presentation, group leadership and information literacy. Particular emphasis is on students learning to present academic content accurately and appropriately as well as getting to grips with the technical features of relevant software and hardware. In addition to providing students with support on current degree programme-related presentation projects, trained student mentors offer workshops and mentoring sessions on presentation techniques as well as on suitable behaviour when giving a presentation and dealing with feedback. The practical use of the methods acquired is an essential part of the course. Upon request, students receive support with their own learning tasks and feedback from their student mentors.

Intended learning outcomes:
By the end of the course, students will possess the following skills and key strengths to go about their studies successfully: essentials of group leadership and presentation, ability to apply established academic conduct methods, academic presentation practice and information literacy. They will also be able to effectively operate visual representation programs.

This module will provide students with an overview of the interactions of plants and animals with their abiotic and biotic environments. The module will focus on the functional adaptation to environmental conditions as well as on the structure and dynamics of populations, communities and ecosystems. Students will be introduced to fundamental model concepts of ecology, will become familiar with examples of research findings and will acquire the fundamental knowledge necessary to develop an understanding of current ecological problems.

Intended learning outcomes

Students are familiar with the fundamental principles of research in the field of ecology and with the most important abiotic and biotic factors that influence the distribution and frequency of occurrence of organisms in their environment. In addition, they understand the scientific relevance ecology has to the assessment of environmental issues.

Demographic change and a shortage of skilled workers have brought about an urgent need for more reflection and action on health-related aspects of work - due to both corporate and political responsibility. In addition, stress-related illness costs businesses and the state billions of euros.

Outline of syllabus:

- Legal basis
- The concept and objectives of a company health management
- Analyses in occupational health management
- Planning and implementation of measures of behavioural and structural prevention
- Quality assurance and project management
- Evaluation and health controlling (cost-effectiveness analysis)

Intended learning outcomes

The seminar provides the content (labor) psychology, health science, education, sociology, and economics. Using examples, practical lectures, and through the presentation of selected aspects in small groups, the students acquire the central components of a company health management.

Abbreviation: 38-CS-PBG-132-m01

Module coordinator: head of Service Centre for Innovation in Teaching and Learning (ZiLS)
Module offered by: head of Service Centre for Innovation in Teaching and Learning (ZiLS)

ECTS: 2
Method of grading: Only after succ. compl. of module(s)

Duration: 1 semester
Module level: undergraduate
Other prerequisites: --

Contents
The module addresses the various opportunities of humanities students for entry into professional life. In this context, it provides the students with information on the whole range of possible occupational fields for humanities scholars. The students conduct an analysis of their strengths and weaknesses in order to identify their personal key competencies or lack thereof. Afterwards, they create a professional application portfolio to familiarise themselves with the guidelines of writing a curriculum vitae, an application letter and an unsolicited application. Furthermore, they practise their presentation skills in order to prepare for real job interviews.

Intended learning outcomes
The students know possible occupational fields for humanities scholars. Apart from typical career opportunities, this also includes opportunities for lateral entry into the job market. The students know which personal key competencies qualify them for their desired occupation or for alternative occupational fields and are confident in using relevant sources of information. They are able to create a complete application portfolio as well as a personal portfolio containing relevant information for the desired occupational field. The students know how to write a personal curriculum vitae, application letters and unsolicited applications. Furthermore, they know the argumentative principles of job interviews. They are able to deal with the specific requirements on humanities scholars in the job market.

Contents

The module functions as the preparation for the subsequent excursion to schools in different European countries. The course includes facts about the history, culture, society, and other aspects of the target culture. Furthermore, students will acquire knowledge about the structure of teacher training, schools and higher education systems of the respective country in order to compare them to the German educational system. Additionally, students are prepared in an intercultural way for the respective country. This will form the basis for the mutual exchange.

Intended learning outcomes

Students are able to reflect upon and discuss about similarities and differences of international educational systems in comparison with the German educational system. They can discuss different aspects of educational systems in respect to migration and intercultural learning. They recognize and can assess historic, social, cultural and political effects on educational systems.

Contents

Media psychology deals with human experiences and behaviour while interacting with media. Media psychology develops theories and tests these in empirical studies. This introductory module aims to equip students with fundamental knowledge about the subject of media psychology (e.g. traditional media and mass media) as well as its theories, findings, and methods.

Intended learning outcomes

Students should be familiar with central concepts and methods of media psychology. They should have a basic knowledge of the subject-specific questions and should understand the relevance and importance of a psychological perspective as well as the relevance of questions in the field of the social sciences. Thus, a basis is provided for academic work as well as for acquiring practically relevant (vocationally oriented) media skills.

Afterwards, the students apply their acquired skills to practical projects at the video / recording studio. Finally, the resulting audiovisual materials are converted into different target formats for the internet, live streams etc.

Intended learning outcomes

Profound knowledge regarding the proper usage of professional audio and video technology, profound knowledge of lighting engineering, postproduction (e.g. for various platforms), planning and designing broadcasts.

Contents
This module is designed to teach key skills in the principles of teaching. Students receive special training to become student mentors and broaden and consolidate their knowledge and skills through interactive workshops and relevant learning methods. Students carry out voluntary work, teaching Oberstufe students at cooperating Gymnasien (German high schools) the essentials of academic writing. They receive support and assistance at every stage of the project, mostly in the form of feedback sessions with their teachers.

Intended learning outcomes
Students will gain subject-specific, methodical and personal skills they will later apply when teaching the fundamental principles and techniques of academic writing. The knowledge they gain in the first part of the course will enhance the academic writing skills as well as the teaching skills of students and will thus qualify them for their role as student mentors. This module includes voluntary work in schools, an experience the students will not only benefit from on a personal level but that will also enhance their social skills.

Contents

The module gives a comprehensive overview of a specific topic of ancient Near Eastern cultural history. Possible topics include various areas of the intellectual and cultural life of the ancient Near East, such as literature, art, music, law, sciences, divination, calendars, deities and myths, temple and palace, the structure of societies and many more. There is an emphasis on the discussion of original sources, their historical development as well as theoretical and methodological issues in the analysis of the sources. In addition, the module gives an overview of current research on the relevant topic.

Intended learning outcomes

The student will acquire detailed knowledge of a topic in ancient Near Eastern cultural history and will be able to discuss a selected topic critically and in detail, taking into account the written and iconographic sources. The student will acquire an overview of the theoretical and methodological issues associated with the respective topic.

Contents

German contents available but not translated yet.

Die Erschließung kultureller Bereiche, Inhalte und Diskussionen sowie deren Wechselwirkung mit der politischen und sozialen Geschichte bilden den Rahmen. Dabei soll die Einteilung der Themen auf den Zeitraum bis zur Gründung der VR China, der Epoche vor den Reformen sowie bis 1989 einen Vergleich ermöglichen. Der Zeitraum nach 1989 wird in der Veranstaltung "Cultural Modernism" fortgeführt. Um Brüche und Kontinuitäten der historischen Entwicklung nachvollziehbar zu machen, werden gezielt verwandte Themenbereiche, die charakteristisch für die jeweiligen Perioden sind, behandelt. Dazu gehören: Kultur und Politik (Kultur als Medium der Reformen); institutionelle Bindung von Kultur (Einfluss/Kontrolle/Steuerung); Kulturschaffende (Künstler/Propagandisten/Reformer); Kultur und Bildung; exemplarische Felder des Kulturschaffens (Malerei/Literatur/ein akademisches Feld).

Intended learning outcomes

German intended learning outcomes available but not translated yet.

Aktuelle Entwicklungen im Bereich der bildenden Künste sollen erkannt und systematisch beschrieben, in den Kontext der gesellschaftlichen Entwicklung Chinas eingeordnet und in exemplarischen Fällen auch selbstständig interpretiert werden.

Die Lehrveranstaltung vermittelt die Ereignisgeschichte (einschließlich der ideologischen, technokratischen, wirtschaftlichen und gesellschaftlichen sowie einiger anderer Komponenten) von 1989 bis 2010 bzw. bis zur Gegenwart. Dabei steht die Reformpolitik der dritten und vierten Generation im Zentrum des Interesses. Die neue Führung Chinas, ihre Sozialisierung und ihr professioneller Werdegang, wird im Rahmen der Reformpolitik der vergangenen 20 Jahre so dargestellt, dass die Abfolge der Ereignisse und die daran beteiligten Personen der Zeitgeschichte so weit wie möglich nachvollziehbar wird.

Intended learning outcomes

Contents

Communication models, cultural models, cultural and structural differences in communication and behavioural styles.

Intended learning outcomes

Students have developed an awareness of cultural differences in communication styles. They have explored potential causes of misunderstandings in intercultural communication and have learned how to resolve misunderstandings and conflicts.

Courses

(type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)

S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)

Method of assessment

(type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module can be chosen to earn a bonus)

presentation (30 minutes) with written elaboration (approx. 5 pages)

Allocation of places

Number of places: 25. Should the number of applications exceed the number of available places, places will be allocated as follows: Applicants from the Bachelor's degree subject Russische Sprache und Kultur (Russian Language and Culture) will be given preferential consideration. The remaining places will be allocated to students of other subjects. These places will be allocated according to the number of subject semesters. Among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. A waiting list will be maintained and places re-allocated as they become available.

Contents

Information literacy in an academic context: search strategies, resources, reference management, copyright, etc.

Intended learning outcomes

Students know what information is needed for what purpose. They are able to locate information that is relevant within their discipline(s) and beyond in a variety of resources and to evaluate this information. They recognise the difference in quality between information they have retrieved from specific, restricted access resources (databases) and information they have found on the free web. The module aims to equip students with the skills needed to find information and literature that is relevant to the topics of their papers.

Contents

Building on nominal previous knowledge, this module teaches students the basics of the target language which will allow them to orient themselves in basic situations in the target language.

Intended learning outcomes

Students will develop basic general language skills and become familiar with intercultural aspects as well as with the culture and society of countries in which the target language is spoken. When they read or listen to texts on topics they are familiar with, they will understand the main points. They will be able to talk and write about general topics, using fundamental grammatical structures and an appropriate yet limited vocabulary. At the end of the module, students will have developed skills in the target language that are equivalent to level "B1 -- Threshold" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents

In this module, students gain an advanced basic knowledge of the target language which will allow them to orient themselves in the target language in standard situations during study abroad periods or in the workplace.

Intended learning outcomes

Students will develop an advanced basic general knowledge of the target language and become familiar with intercultural aspects as well as with the culture and society of countries in which the target language is spoken. They will understand longer speeches and presentations as well as longer texts of medium difficulty that use general and subject-specific vocabulary. They will be able to express themselves, both orally and in writing, in a structured and detailed manner about a number of topics of personal interest. This module builds on level "B1 -- Threshold" and aims to enable students to reach level "B2 -- Vantage" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents

In this module, students gain a skill-based and advanced basic knowledge of the target language which will allow them to orient themselves in the target language in standard situations during study abroad periods or in the workplace.

Intended learning outcomes

This module will equip students with an advanced basic general knowledge of the target language and will focus on developing reading and listening comprehension as well as written and oral communication skills. The targeted skills training builds on level "B1 -- Threshold" and aims to enable students to reach level "B2 -- Vantage" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Students will systematically enhance their spoken and written language skills to prepare for the lowest level of mobility (unterste Mobilitätsstufe) as recommended by the Council of Europe.

Other prerequisites

Required level of language proficiency: B1+. To be considered to have achieved the required level of language proficiency, students must a) have completed an assessment test with a certain score or b) have successfully completed the following modules in the respective language: A1: module Grundstufe A1 (Basic Level A1) or modules Grundstufe A1.1 (Basic Level A1.1) and Grundstufe A1.2 (Basic Level A1.2) - A2: module Grundstufe A2 (Basic Level A2) - B1: module Grundstufe B1 (Basic Level B1) - B1+: module Mittelstufe B1 (Intermediate Level B1) - B2: module Mittelstufe B2 (Intermediate Level B2) as well as other appropriate certificates.

Contents

In this module, students gain an advanced basic knowledge of the target language which will allow them to orient themselves in the target language in standard situations during study abroad periods or in the workplace.

Intended learning outcomes

Students will develop an advanced basic general knowledge of the target language and become familiar with intercultural aspects as well as with the culture and society of countries in which the target language is spoken. They will understand longer speeches and presentations as well as longer texts of medium difficulty that use general and subject-specific vocabulary. They will be able to express themselves, both orally and in writing, in a structured and detailed manner about a number of topics of personal interest. This module builds on level "B1 -- Threshold" and aims to enable students to reach level "B2 -- Vantage" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents

This module equips students with academic skills in the target language in order to prepare them for study abroad. The module aims to maximise students’ opportunities to succeed at university in their host countries.

Intended learning outcomes

Students are systematically trained in academic skills in the target language and will gain the ability to attend university in a country where the target language is spoken. They are able to understand and produce academic texts in the target language. In addition, they can demonstrate the level of oral language proficiency that is required for study in their host countries. This module supports level "B2 -- Vantage" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and aims to enable students to reach the independent user level. ### Contents

This module familiarises students with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken and thus enables them to act appropriately in the target language. It discusses the culture, geography, history, society, political system, and the economy of said countries.

Intended learning outcomes

Students develop highly advanced language skills and a thorough familiarity with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken. They are thus able to communicate, both verbally and in writing, in a variety of situations, taking into account aspects related to the culture and society of said countries. Students are able to effectively and flexibly use the target language, both during study abroad periods and in the workplace. This module builds on level "B2 -- Vantage" and aims to enable students to reach level "C1 -- Effective Operational Proficiency" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents

This module equips students with advanced communication skills in the target language. These will allow them to communicate appropriately, in both written and oral form, at university and in business settings.

Intended learning outcomes

Students gain sound business- and economics-specific communication skills (written and oral) in the target language. They develop advanced business- and economics-specific language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding situations, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in business and economics terminology and are able to communicate effectively within the discipline. At the end of the stage, they will have developed business- and economics-specific language skills that are equivalent to level "C1 -- Effective Operational Proficiency" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents

This module familiarises students with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken and thus enables them to act appropriately in the target language. It discusses the culture, geography, history, society, political system, and the economy of said countries.

Intended learning outcomes

Students develop highly advanced language skills and a thorough familiarity with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken. They are thus able to communicate, both verbally and in writing, in a variety of situations, taking into account aspects related to the culture and society of said countries. Students are able to effectively and flexibly use the target language, both during study abroad periods and in the workplace. This module builds on level "B2 -- Vantage" and aims to enable students to reach level "C1 -- Effective Operational Proficiency" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

This module equips students with advanced communication skills in the target language. These will allow them to communicate appropriately, in both written and oral form, at university and in business settings.

Intended learning outcomes

Students gain sound business- and economics-specific communication skills (written and oral) in the target language. They develop advanced business- and economics-specific language skills that will allow them to communicate about selected topics in corresponding situations, using language flexibly. Students are proficient in business and economics terminology and are able to communicate effectively within the discipline. At the end of the stage, they will have developed business- and economics-specific language skills that are equivalent to level "C1 -- Effective Operational Proficiency" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Contents
This module familiarises students with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken and thus enables them to act appropriately in the target language. It discusses the culture, geography, history, society, political system, and the economy of said countries.

Intended learning outcomes
Students develop highly advanced language skills and a thorough familiarity with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken. They are thus able to communicate, both verbally and in writing, in a variety of situations, taking into account aspects related to the culture and society of said countries. Students are able to effectively and flexibly use the target language, both during study abroad periods and in the workplace. This module builds on level "B2 -- Vantage" and aims to enable students to reach level "C1 -- Effective Operational Proficiency" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

In this module, students (without any previous knowledge of the Latin language) gain a solid knowledge of Latin.

Intended learning outcomes

Students develop the ability to comprehend the content, structure, and message of original Latin texts that correspond in difficulty to simpler passages from prose texts (e.g. Caesar, Nepos). Upon successful completion of the module, students will be issued the Latin language certificate Kleines Latinum that attests a "solid knowledge" of the Latin language. The certificate also attests a "knowledge" of the Latin language.

Contents:
Working in pairs, students independently learn to successfully communicate and act in intercultural situations. They enhance both their language and their intercultural skills in concrete contact situations, working on topics and exercises of their choice.

Intended learning outcomes:
Students gain the ability to set their own learning goals and to achieve these together with a partner. They expand both their language and their intercultural skills in areas of their choice, use learning strategies, and continuously document and reflect on their learning progress.

Contents

This module familiarises students with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken and thus enables them to act appropriately in the target language. It discusses the culture, geography, history, society, political system, and the economy of said countries.

Intended learning outcomes

Students develop highly advanced language skills and a thorough familiarity with the culture and society of countries where the target language is spoken. They are thus able to communicate, both verbally and in writing, in a variety of situations, taking into account aspects related to the culture and society of said countries. Students are able to effectively and flexibly use the target language, both during study abroad periods and in the workplace.

Contents

Based on the acquired methods and professional knowledge (research, presentation of knowledge, writing of term papers), the students are able to scientifically work on and present selected topics of modern German literary studies.

Intended learning outcomes

The students have knowledge of original and current forms of selected cultures. Thus, they are able to understand and apply country-specific rules of etiquette and to counteract stereotypes. Furthermore, they are able to cope with true-to-life situations.

Courses (type, number of weekly contact hours, language — if other than German)

S (no information on SWS (weekly contact hours) and course language available)

Method of assessment (type, scope, language — if other than German, examination offered — if not every semester, information on whether module can be chosen to earn a bonus)

a) written examination (approx. 120 minutes)

Allocation of places

Not more than 30 places. Places will be allocated according to the number of subject semesters. Among applicants with the same number of subject semesters, places will be allocated by lot. A waiting list will be maintained and places re-allocated by lot as they become available.

Contents
In this module, we draw a cultural comparison based on various categories (including societies based on collectivism or individualism, task-oriented and/or relation-oriented societies, societies with a polychromatic or monochromatic sense of time). In addition, we examine general communication models and analyse sample individual incidents.

Intended learning outcomes
The students have advanced knowledge of the terms and concepts underlying intercultural competence. They have gained an insight into the processes of intercultural encounters and intercultural communication on the basis of various sample countries. They are able to recognise and analyse the intercultural roots of misunderstandings and know how to resolve these.

Contents

The students get to know various aspects and topics of an intercultural society and are faced with different requirements of a global society and working environment in the context of different cultures and cultural standards. A strong emphasis is put on the diversity of values and lifestyles, different ideologies and patterns of orientation as well as the different ways of thinking and living. The topics are always processed in consideration of an intercultural perspective.

Intended learning outcomes

By analysing the diversity of cultures and cultural interpretive patterns, the students gain basic knowledge of scientifically sound approaches to intercultural learning. Practical exercises and role plays enable the students to transfer their knowledge to real situations to strengthen both their ability to critically reflect their own point of view as well as their social and personal competence. The primary goal is to acquire intercultural key competencies.
