Subdivided Module Catalogue
for the Subject
History of Medieval and Modern Art as a major in a Bachelor’s degree programme with the degree "Bachelor of Arts"
(120 ECTS credits)

Examination regulations version: 2013
Responsible: Faculty of Arts, Historical, Philological, Cultural and Geographical Studies
Course of Studies - Contents and Objectives

Students of the Bachelor programme History of Medieval and Modern Art (main subject, 120 ECTS) acquire profound knowledge on the changing forms of artistic expression in Europe and North America within a period stretching from the early Middle Ages to the threshold of the present day. Besides general fundamental scientific qualifications and analytical/methodical competences, students acquire profound knowledge of the most important landmarks in all three artistic genres (architecture, sculpture, painting) and of specifics of their form and iconography, developing an awareness of the historicity of research methods. They acquire competence in the use of subject-specific terminology with regard to architecture and library and book sciences. They become familiar with handling originals and receive insights into the resulting complexes of questions regarding heritage management, restoration and conservation. Students develop a deeper understanding of the historical circumstances in which works of arts came into being and the creative achievement involved and possess the capability for local contextualization. They acquire fundamental knowledge in Museology and develop sensitivity for the needs of the recipients in the communication of art historical topics.
