for the Subject
Theological Studies
as a minor in a Bachelor's degree programme
(60 ECTS credits)

Examination regulations version: 2011
Responsible: Faculty of Catholic Theology

Course of Studies - Contents and Objectives

Graduates have acquired the essential skills to judge critically and clearly any current religious, ecclesiastical, political, and socio-cultural processes according to Christian principles. They understand theological academic literature as a study of various disciplines with an encyclopedic nature. They have obtained an overview of the different disciplines of theology and the applicable methodological basics. Therefore they are able to work in an independent and scientific manner according to theological aspects. They are also in the position to expand the competences they have acquired during their studies independently and appropriately.

This module acquaints students seeking specialisation in biblical theology with Old Testament texts and their contexts. Discussion of advanced topics in Bible and literary genres. Discussion and exegetical interpretation of key texts from the Pentateuch, the prophetic books, the psalms, and wisdom literature. The module thus covers a range of topics in Old Testament theology. In addition, it discusses topics in literary studies, the history of religion as well as theology.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with key biblical texts and topics in Bible. They will have developed an awareness of the historical development and religious historical context of biblical texts. In addition, students will be able to use exegetical methods to interpret those texts. They will have developed the ability to critically reflect upon topical issues relating to the Bible and take their own well-founded position on them.

A thorough insight into topics and methods in modern social ethics, its models and underlying assumptions for students seeking specialisation in Christian social sciences. A comprehensive introduction to the broad area of human institutional behaviour in politics, the economy, and other forms of social cooperation.
Intended learning outcomes
At the end of the course, students will have become familiar with topics in, and aspects of, Christian social sciences. They will have developed the ability to engage in critical scholarly reflection on human behaviour in the world as a form of socio-political responsibility. They will have developed an understanding of how the socio-historical developments of human institutions in cultural systems underlie the present situation. Based on this understanding, students will be able to analyse issues in social ethics, using an ethical hermeneutics.
