Conventions

Unless otherwise stated, courses and assessments will be held in German, assessments will be offered every semester and modules are not creditable for bonus.

Notes

Should there be the option to choose between several methods of assessment, the lecturer will agree with the module coordinator on the method of assessment to be used in the current semester by two weeks after the start of the course at the latest and will communicate this in the customary manner.

Should the module comprise more than one graded assessment, all assessments will be equally weighted, unless otherwise stated below.

Should the assessment comprise several individual assessments, successful completion of the module will require successful completion of all individual assessments.

In accordance with the general regulations governing the degree subject described in this module catalogue:

LASPO2015

associated official publications (FSB (subject-specific provisions)/SFB (list of modules)):

| Lecture and seminar; Students will be introduced to an essential sub-area of Latin Philology. In this context, they will be introduced to interpretation methods, elements of text analysis and literary historical coherences; They will get an overview of intellectual and cultural backgrounds; They will be introduced to the tradition history and history of literary reception. They will be able to translate important but simple texts, from the area of Latin prose, into German; Thus, the module covers the repetition of significant units of school grammar, discussion of metric phenomena, instruction to historical linguistic and stylised text analysis, introduction to different interpretations methods. Students will deal in-depth with important, not too challenging Latin literature. Thus, they will theoretical be introduced to interpretation methods and practical training of text analysis; They will be instructed on dealing with academic secondary literature appropriately; They will analyse literary historical coherences as well as discuss genre issues; They will deal with the history of tradition and reception. |                   |                                      |

| Students will be introduced to an essential sub-area of Latin Philology. In this context, they will be introduced to interpretation methods, elements of text analysis and literary historical coherences; They will get an overview of intellectual and cultural backgrounds; They will be introduced to tradition history and history of literary reception. They will deal in-depth with important, not too challenging Latin literature. Thus, they will theoretically be introduced to interpretation methods and practical training of text analysis; They will be instructed on dealing with academic secondary literature appropriately; They will analyse literary historical coherences as well as discussion of genre issues; They will deal with the history of tradition and reception. |                   |                                      |
