a) Familiarity with structures, objectives, and characteristics of methods in Arbeitslehre and interrelating these with specific classroom situations. Structure of lecture on methodology (might be replaced by course offered by Virtuelle Hochschule Bayern (vhb) as of the winter semester 2010/11): general theoretical fundamentals of methods for use in the Arbeitslehre classroom; fundamental principles of traditional methods; simulative methods. b) Overview of curriculum designs for the subject of Arbeitslehre; arguments from the area of education policy as well as anthropological, social, and economic arguments to justify contents and objectives of the subject of Arbeitslehre.

Intended learning outcomes

After successful completion of the module, students will have become familiar with essential methods in the Arbeitslehre classroom, will have developed the ability to adequately evaluate them with respect to their use in the classroom, and will have become self-reflexive in their actions. They will be able to interrelate what is required of teachers and what is required of pupils when using the respective methods as well as to identify interrelations between a teacher's personality and suitable teaching methods. Students will have developed competencies in the area of media didactics and will be able to evaluate possible ways to use essential media in the Arbeitslehre classroom. In addition, they will be able to produce arguments to justify the educational objectives of the subject of Arbeitslehre and will be able to see the contents and design of curricula in the context of the historical development of the subject as well as to present and implement these in manner that is tailored to the needs of their target group.

with the lecturer for Arbeitslehre didactics.

Students will be able to independently familiarise themselves with topics in Arbeitslehre didactics and to prepare the subject matter-specific basis for the completion of a practice-oriented assignment designed for pupils attending Mittelschule schools. Based on this subject matter-specific basis, they will be able to prepare, implement, and reflect upon a teaching project and perform the respective follow-up work or to document and evaluate a teaching activity (potentially in cooperation with non-school partners) or to evaluate whether a method or methods for use in the Arbeitslehre classroom is/are suitable for achieving the learning outcomes in one or more topics in the subject that are prescribed by the curriculum or to present, substantiate, and conclusively reflect upon the associated possibilities, limitations, problems, and opportunities during teaching practice or in the context of projects implemented at school. Students will be able to prepare an appropriate written account of the results of their work and, where applicable, will be able to illustrate complex concepts in an appropriate scholarly manner.
