Contents
The module focusses on a thematic field of adult education and continuing education. The emphasis is on information about fields of work and institutions of education in the context of lifelong learning, which is supplemented by independent field explorations in self-organised exercises and orientation studies.
Intended learning outcomes
Students are familiar with key issues of a pedagogical field and its history in institutions and organisations. They will have gained an understanding of important structures of the specific field against the background of questions of professional theory and will be able to categorise these. Furthermore, they can carry out field trips independently.

Didactic concepts and theories of education, media-didactic concepts with a special focus on the deployment of digital media in classes, planning and creating learning environments whilst taking into account the subject and the target group as well as the requirements of inclusive education; theory of school as a institution and organisation that has been shaped and has to be shaped; results of empirical school and classroom research; concepts of diagnosing, evaluating and promoting performance, concepts of norm determination and quality management; education, schooling, promotion and counselling in school and classes.
After successfully completing this module, the students are able to characterise and evaluate theories of school and classes as well as concepts and theories of schooling and education in view of different aspects and criteria. They can analyse teaching and learning offers and examples with reference to selected didactic concepts and theories whilst taking into account media as well as information and communication technology and schooling/education situations. In addition, they are able to create their own offers based on theories. They are able to outline processes of norm determination, diagnosis, learning promotion, evaluation and quality management and can evaluate their meaning for the development of school. Furthermore, the students are able to evaluate their own role as a teacher in view of different tasks regarding professional aspects.
